

Mayor Issuing Orders To Street Dept.

Warfield Says He Will Stay In Office; Blames Politics, SIU Report

A struggle over the Granite City street department, with two elected officials — the mayor and superintendent of streets — vying for supremacy, seemed to be the forefront in the city last week.

Mayor Davis met at the city garage with the 28 workers and told them orders would be issued from his office through two department foremen and his orders were not to be altered by Supr. of Streets William Warfield.

Both men—Mayor Davis and Supr. Warfield—told the Press-Record in separate interviews Friday that politics and the Southern Illinois University government study report played an important role in the dispute. The political end stems from last April's city election when Warfield circulated petitions for the office of mayor but did not file a candidate opposing Davis.

"On Way Out"

Mayor Davis stated that Supr. Warfield still is in office and has a voice in directing the department unless it conflicts with orders from his office. The mayor added, "Warfield is on his way out. As far as I'm concerned, he's through. He's dead politically and otherwise. He can't run in the office."

Supr. Warfield, who took a day of his vacation on Thursday, said he issued no orders while in his office in the city garage on Friday. The street superintendent told the Press-Record he is considering an appeal to the council but does not know when it will be made. The street department issue is not listed on the agenda for tonight's session, but could be discussed by a vote of the members.

"How can I perform my duties if I can't tell the men what to do?" Warfield asked. "I've spent years trying to build up the department, and now it's torn completely apart."

Routing Of Requests

The superintendent of streets said it was normal for requests to be given six or more requests or complaints each day from the mayor's office. He said he was not the one to be given the requests, but that he personally has not received one since the April election.

Mayor Davis points to the SIU governmental study report which recommends an appointive street superintendent, to work under the direction of an appointed director of public works who is to be an engineer. "I'm using that as my guide," the mayor said, adding that politics definitely was in the picture and that he and Warfield had not worked together since a time prior to the last April city election.

Warfield contends the mayor is overstepping his authority in directing work of the street department; while Davis said he is

Burglaries At 3 Area Taverns And Weekend Holdup

Burglaries at three area taverns, a holdup of a local taxi cab driver in St. Louis and nine other thefts and break-ins were reported to local and county authorities over the long holiday weekend.

Colt boxes and their contents were stolen from a cigar machine and automatic music machine at Garrett's tavern, Weaver and Douglas streets, Venice, early today. It was discovered at 7:15 a.m.

The burglar pried boards off the door to gain entrance, and apparently left through a rear door, police learned.

For the second straight night, the burglar pried boards off the door to gain entrance to the 900 block of Nindringhaus avenue early Friday. This time it was the 900 block of Nindringhaus avenue, 903 Nindringhaus, which was entered last Thursday.

Taken early Friday were eight packs of chewing tobacco, 13 cartons of cigars, 14 plants of wine, several bottles of whiskey and between two and three dollar in pennies from the cash register. John Vardanyan, who reported the theft, said that the juke box and a bowling machine were unable to get the coin boxes.

Police reported that entry was made through the skylight in the women's rest room and the burglars laid the glass in the skylight before breaking it.

Venice City Tax Levy For 1961 Is Set At $323,196

A $323,196 tax levy for 1961, up $32,740 from a year ago, was adopted by the Venice City council Friday night.

It is based on the 1961-62 budget of $363,796, with $3000 added for the working cash fund and $47,800 in balances and receipts deducted.

The new budget, adopted July 7, represents an increase of only $1840 over the 1960-61 budget of $363,556. However, deductions for cash on hand and other resources were $24,000 higher last year totaling $78,500 over the $50,000 working cash fund.

Amounts subtracted from the budget total in determining the new levy were $33,000 in existing and expected funds for the city's general fund, up $5000; $22,740 in Venice township road taxes, up $200; $2500 in fines by the city police magistrate; down $3000; $2900 in city liquor licenses, down $6100; and no funds deducted in the library and construction account down $30,000.

Budget Changes

The $1840 budget increase had represented the net result of larger changes in the allocations for individual departments.

Rises included $32,739 for the fire department, $11,886 for city pensions, $10,000 for city officers, $7700 for the municipal retirement fund and $5670 for the street department, and budget declines included $10,150 on library bonds and interest, $32,175 on library furnishings and construction and $15,462 on the police department.

Of the $323,196 levy, $110,925 is for general fund accounts and $212,270 is listed under special levies.

Kidnap-Murder Victim Was Sister Of GC Man

St. Clair county authorities have to bring at least one of the pair of confessed killers, John Edwin Meyer, 32, and 13-year-old Donna Marie Stone, back to Illinois to stand trial for murder. Among those killed was the half-sister of a Granite City man.

St. Clair County State's Attorney John Karmes Jr. returned yesterday from Texas, where the pair was caught last week after killing a Belleville man and his daughter, kidnapping a Belleville woman and later killing her, taking an automobile and later picking up and killing a hitchhiker from Iowa.

Karmes said he had statements from both Meyer and the girl giving the details of their actions from the time they killed George Ballard, 47, and his 10-year-old daughter, Carol, as they were fishing at a lake outside Belleville.

The two then kidnaped Miss Mary Margaret Meyer, 19, who lived with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Graham in Belleville, and took the Graham's 1954 model car. Miss Meyer was a sister of James Nann of Granite City.

Murphy Hadley Found Dead After Car Strikes Tree

Murphy C. Hadley, 44, of 102 Chicago road, Madison, was found dead in his car at 9:30 p.m. Friday, about two hours after it had left Route 111 a half-mile south of State A 10 Route 83, striking a steel post and crashing.

It is possible that death was caused by a heart attack rather than the collision, it was learned from Deputy Coroner Francis Lahey, who will conduct an inquest.

Mr. Hadley was alone in the car, which had been traveling north on 111 and ran off the highway for a distance of 37 feet. Its front end hit a four-inch steel post and the tree. He appeared to have suffered cuts and bruises.

Neatly dressed, he was found on the pavement at 7:30 p.m. Friday but could see no one and assumed the driver had abandoned the car. Upon investigating two hours later, they found him on the floor of the vehicle. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

The bumper and grille of the car were damaged, but the interior was not damaged. The driver's seat was torn and the driver's side of the car was damaged.

Mr. Hadley, the father of eight, had been in poor health and retired three years ago as a spray painter at the National Lead Co.

He was born in Chaffee, Mo., and resided in the Quod-City area for 40 years. He was a member of the Pontoon Beach Church of Christ.

The levy boost will increase the city's tax rate, which amounted to 61.4 cents for 1960.

The council also adopted a resolution increasing the 12-cent maximum rate on street taxes to 20.3 cents for 1961.

Three pedestrians were among the 12 persons injured in labor day holiday weekend traffic accidents in the Quod-City area, local police, deputies and troopers reported today.

Mrs. Weber said she was driving north on Madison avenue when Mrs. Georgeff ran west from 14th street, apparently hurrying to catch a bus.

The driver said she did not see the woman until she was driving through the intersection, and Mrs. Georgeff hit the side of her car about the middle of the right front fender, police were told.

Granite City police answered the call and turned reports over to the Madison police department when it was determined that the mishap occurred in Madison.

Taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, he was treated and released. He was driven by George M. Birdsong, 17, of 2708 Cayuga street, who made an unsuccessful attempt to stop. News had just passed his northbound car and was walking away from it when he was struck by a southbound auto.

Reduction In Quad-City Traffic Mishaps In Past Month

Quad-City area traffic accidents showed a downward trend during August, with the lowest being the lowest for an August in three years and the lowest for any month since February 1959.

The month's tally increased the 1961 collision list to 1055. At this rate, there would be about 1500 by the end of the year, compared to a record 1731 auto mishaps last year.

The 1960 eight-month tabulation compares with similar periods in 1960, with 1104; 1959, 1028; 1958, 891; 1957, 1075; 1956, 1008; 1955, 941; 1954, 675; and 1953, 706.

During the past month, 58 persons sustained injuries of varying degree. This was the smallest number since February 1961 and also was the lowest for an August in three years.

The 513 persons hurt since January are exceeded only by the 519 at this time in 1960, 1959 through 1959 were 283, 260, 422, 377, 413, 357 and 452.

At the current rate, about 770 injuries are in prospect for all of 1961. This would exceed all years except 1960, when 805 persons were hurt.

Lone fatality in August was John Kamadulski, four years old.

who suffered fatal head injuries Aug. 6 when struck by a truck. The truck was backing in a driveway at the rear of his home at 2701 Swan avenue.

The year's toll stands at 21, equal to the 21 recorded through Aug. 31, 1957, and less than the 24 in the first eight months of 1954.

No years since 1954 have approached the total of 44 traffic deaths, but 1961 appeared headed for an extremely high number with 20 deaths in the first half of the year. However, there were no deaths in July and the decline in August to reverse the trend.

Daily kill and possession limits are five geese, and may include two Canada geese or subspecies.

Game Bird Seasons

The seasons in which upland game birds — cock pheasant, quail and Hungarian partridge — may be taken begin on Nov. 3 at noon. Pheasants may be taken to Dec. 12, with a daily kill limit of three, and a possession limit of eight; and partridge until Dec. 12 with a daily bag limit of two.

The Illinois Conservation Commission lists a closed season on these game birds in counties where deer hunting is permitted Dec. 1 through Dec. 3.

Deer, limited to one per hunter or sex, may be taken by shotgun with rifle slug only in the following counties Dec. 1-3: DeWitt, Stephenson, Winnebago, Carroll, Ogle, Boone, De Kalb, Whiteside, Lee, Mercer, Putnam, Marshall, Henderson, Warren, Hancock, McDonough, Fulton, Adams, Brown, Schuyler, Mason, Green, Jersey, Knox, Cass, Pike, Scott, Morgan, Calhoun, Jackson, Saline, Williamson, Gallatin, Union, Hancock, Pope, Hardin, Alexander, Pulaski, Massac, Clinton, Fayette, Bureau, Rock Island, Hamilton, Washington and White.

The Illinois squirrel season in the southern zone, including Madison county, is currently open and runs until Oct. 15, with the daily limit of one squirrel and one rabbit. The squirrel season will open Nov. 18 and close Jan. 31. Shooting hours for squirrels and rabbits are sunrise to sunset.

Resident and non-resident hunting licenses and federal duck stamps for hunting migratory waterfowl may be obtained from the office of City Clerk A. L. Stevens at the city hall in Granite City.

Moose Club 272 Beaten In State Class B Tourney

The Charleston Farm Bureau rallied with three runs in the fourth inning Saturday night at Danville, and eliminated the Amateur Class B Amateur Softball Association state tourney entry, Moose Club 272, by a 3-1 score in a quarterfinal round game.

The Moose had taken a 1-0 lead in the top of the second, but after losing pitcher Steve Miller had loaded the bases with Farm Bureau runners in the fourth, Jim Metzger broke the game open with a two-out double which cleaned the bases.

Winner Dean Crighton got into trouble in the seventh when the Moose got two runners aboard with nobody out, but pitched out of the jam to preserve his two-run lead.

Charleston managed just four hits off Melton, while the Moose had five, including two each by Rich Briggs and Ray Jones.

The most lopsided victories ever scored in the 48-year history of the How Bowl football game were administered by Michigan against Stanford in 1902 and by Michigan again against Southern California in 1948. The scores were identical — 49-0.

Walter Camp, known as the father of American football, commonly credited with originating the first All-America football selections in 1889, publishing them that year in "Collier's Weekly."

Freshman Moose Lodge of East St. Louis clinched the Red division title of the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball league over the Labor Day weekend on the strength of being the only club in the league able to sweep both its scheduled games.

The Moose team took a big step Sunday afternoon when it parlayed a three-run ninth-inning rally into an 8-7 victory over its closest Red division competitor, Collinsville.

Collinsville's Mercer then came back the following afternoon to edge Blue division leader McAtee Glass 2-1, and open up a 3½-game lead over the Hoopers, with only one weekend of play remaining in the regular season.

The Is-Only Hope

The Blue division picture — among the contenders — remained unchanged, although the best second place, Mercer Funeral Home of Granite City can hope for now is a tie with the division-leading McAtee.

Beaten by the Moose yesterday, McAtee had bombed Carpenter Sunday afternoon, and came out of weekend action with a 16-5 mark.

Mercer, squandering past pesky Puchontas for the third time this season Sunday, 4-3, was beaten by the same score yesterday at Wilson Park, with hometown rival Sacred Heart gaining revenge for an earlier defeat here in a time when Mercer badly needed speed of holiday diamond activities.

Mercer came out of the busy two-day schedule with a 15-4 mark.

In Sunday's fourth game, Troy's Redbirds pushed across a run in the bottom of the 11th to edge the Hearts 4-3, so that all three games involving local teams eventually were decided by lopsided scores.

Scattered thunderstorms visited two Inter-City diamonds yesterday afternoon, and as a result the Puchontas-Troy and Maryville-Collinsville contests were postponed due to rain. Post victories over defunct White City were awarded to Maryville and Carpenter.

Mercer pushed across what proved to be the winning run in the ninth inning Sunday at Puchontas on singles by Bob Allen and winning pitcher Don Krampholtz, followed by a Braves throwing error. Mercer had scored three in the third, with Cook's triple and Don Dillard's double big blows in the frame.

Basins Goes Distance

Yesterday the Hearts jumped off to a quick two-run lead in the first when Bob Price homered off Mercer starter and loser Jack Buente after Jim McChee on had drawn a base on balls.

The winners added a single marker in the second, and Buente drove home tally No. 4 in the sixth when he singled after Roger Wells had drawn a Grant Kalamjian hit from a free pass.

Mercer put together four hits, including Rich Brown's double in the eighth for three runs, but rains weathered the storm. Dick Krampholtz worked a relief of Buente.

On Sunday in Troy, Garland Krampholtz hammered a two-run homer in the 11th inning to break a 3-3 tie and give the Redbirds their 4-3 decision over the Hearts. Gary Wiesenmeyer was the winner, and Rains, who relieved Roger Parker in the ninth, was charged with the loss.

Moss, Barnes Win 2 Doubles Titles In Park Net Meet

Dave Moss of Granite City literally cleaned house over the weekend in three divisions of the Granite City park district tennis tournament, adding three trophies to the one he garnered last week in the junior singles division.

Moss topped Mike Barnes in straight sets, 6-0, 6-0, to win the men's singles championship, and then teamed up with Barnes as the pair trounced back George Vogeler and Al Malottis for the men's doubles title, 6-8, 6-3, 6-3.

Moss and Barnes again paired up to cop the title in the juniors' division with straight 6-0, 6-0 scores over Rusty Toburen and Tom Moore.

Toburen and Jerry Walters were easy 6-0, 6-1 winners over Dick Lindmeyer and Wayne Dill in finals of the boys' 11 and 13 divisions.

The tournament, which began last Monday and concluded Sunday, drew an unusually small field of entrants.

In finals of the boys' 13, a and junior and girls' 18 singles were played last week, with John Vandusick, Moss and Gay Mueller winning first-place trophies in their respective divisions.

Community Heights Ties For 2nd Place; Playoffs Open Tonight

Community Heights Assembly of God, closing out the regular season with its third straight victory, tied Bethel Community for second place in the Church Slow-Pitch Softball league Friday night at Wilson Park.

Stripped by Rich Wiley's three straight hits, Community Heights out loose with a six-run second frame, and proceeded to an 11-5 win. It gave the victors a 7-5 record for the completed season, tied them with Bethel, and will necessitate an agreement to determine the league runner-up.

Dave and Rich Wilson formed the winning battery, with the former limbering Bethel to eighth place. Community Heights had 18 off-losing Floyd Burlingame, whose batterymate was John Childers.

Shutout For 4 Frames

Dave Wilson blanked Bethel until the fifth, when the losers scored three runs. But Community Heights had picked up another five runs the previous frame.

League champion Madison Baptist had its hands full in the second contest, and Good Shepherd put up a game but futile fight to close out the season with a victory. Good Shepherd was beaten 4-2 and wound up with an 0-12 season record. Madison Baptist finished at 10-2.

The titling playd an error and three straight hits into three runs in the second inning to overcome a 1-0 Good Shepherd lead. Both clubs scored once in the sixth.

Frank Stanfill worked behind the plate for the Baptist. Bud Layton was the loser, with Duwayne Hurt and Bill Bryant dividing catching chores for Good Shepherd.

Church league playoffs are scheduled to begin tonight at 7 o'clock when Madison Baptist will meet Good Shepherd. The teams presently deadlocked in a second place tie will meet at 8:15.

Spengler Sweeps Saturday Twin-Bill At Wilson Park

Behind the "all-the-way" hurrying of Ray Hoffman and Evans Mank, Spengler Insurance of Granite City swept an exhibition softball doubleheader Saturday night at Wilson Park.

Mank gave up just four safeties as Spengler tripped Lanesdowne Baptist Church of East St. Louis 2-1, and Hoffman got plenty of offensive help as he bested Evanville 12-2 in the second encounter.

John Andreat blanked Spengler for four innings in the contest with the Baptists and Lanesdowne counted its lone run in the top of the fourth to take a 1-0 lead.

But Spengler got two in the bottom of the fifth and added three more runs in the sixth, highlighted by Bob Jones' home run. Spengler had a total of seven hits.

Against Evanville, the local club had things pretty much its own way, scored twice in each of the first three frames and added three runs in both the fourth and fifth stanzas.

Although he gave up nine hits, Hoffman kept them well acattered, with Evanville able to cross the plate only in the fourth and fifth innings. Spengler collected 12 hits, Walt Wynn caught both games for Spengler, which was run-up in the local Class B circuit.

Colide At Bend Road
The intersection of Route 67a and Bend road south of Madison was the scene at 12:15 a.m. Saturday of a collision between the front of the auto of Gary D. Miller, 20, and a side of the car of Clarence Smith, 40, East St. Louis. Miller's address was listed only as 705 Parkway drive.

Smith was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for a chest pain and bruises to the left ribs, while a passenger in his car, Ethel Blair, East St. Louis, suffered minor cuts. Miller was headed south on 67a and Smith was pulling onto the highway from Bend road, state police were told.

Three St. Louisans were hurt at 11 p.m. Friday when their auto went out of control at a curve and left a Mitchell highway vehicle. Sheriff deputies said there is a sharp turn in the concrete access road to a new highway under construction adjacent to Bypass.

Those taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital were the driver, Armond Scales, 40, badly lacerated lower lip and an abrasion to the right knee; a passenger, Jesse Smalley, 27, laceration on the forehead and an abrasion to the right leg; and another passenger, Julia Reed, 28, who was admitted to the hospital for treatment of a left leg laceration and other cuts.

Woman Hurt On Bridge
Bessie Johnson, 30, St. Louis, sustained injury to the right knee at 3:43 a.m. Sunday in a collision on the eastern end of the McKinley Bridge. Police said she was a passenger in the auto of William Perkins, 23, Chicago.

The other car was driven by Claude W. Downs, 37, of 1712 Delmar avenue. Both vehicles were headed east, and they collided while one was passing, police were told. A bridge railing was struck after the cars had met.

Damage was listed to the left rear transmission and right front of Perkins' auto and the right front fender of the other machine. Both were towed to a garage.

Fatal Crash
Edward L. Wylie, 36, of 63 Greiner Homes, Madison, was driver of the second of two autos that struck an East St. Louis man at 11:45 p.m. Saturday in front of 6215 State street. The car, 42, of 500 North 63rd street was dead on arrival at St. Mary's Hospital.

She was struck by the auto of Joseph Alvarado, 32, of Fairmont. Wylie told the police he saw a bystander waving in an effort to halt him, but he was braking to a stop.

Stearns said both Meyer and the Stone girl will be held by Texas authorities for grand jury trial. But, he said, the girl cannot be tried under Texas law until she is 17, and will likely be returned to St. Clair county for trial.

Funeral services will be held for Miss Wernicker, who lived in Granite City as a child, Wednesday at an East St. Louis funeral home.

COFFEE CONSUMPTION
Americans, who drink about 60 million cups of coffee daily, consume nearly 16 pounds annually for every man, woman and child in the nation.

When the Declaration of Independence was ready on Aug. 2, 1776, it was signed by John Hancock, as president of Congress, and the 50 or so members present for the session. The other signatures were added later.

Speeding, Parking Campaigns In Venice

With school resuming, plans for a drive against speeding in Venice were reported by Mayor John E. Lee and Police Chief Frank DeWitt at Friday night's city council meeting.

All patrol cars will be kept in operation in an effort to curtail the speed violations both on major streets and in residential areas.

The drive also will include parking on the wrong side of the street, Dr. Lee said, noting that a motorist's insurance is void if his car is headed the wrong way in an accident. Warning on parking violations will be issued initially, followed by arrests.

'Y' Teen Town Is Sport, Social Center

The YMCA Teen Town is one of the best in the state.

A pretty large statement! Yes, but a well documented one. Visitors from YMCA's throughout the country have remarked that the local program is one of the most active and complete they have seen.

Another indication of the stature of the youth program came last year in the voting for honor clubs among Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y groups all over Illinois. Eleven southern Illinois clubs received the honor and ten of those were from the local "Y".

This year a Granite City teenager was selected governor of the annual youth legislature, held in April at Springfield. Composed of members of teen clubs throughout the state, the legislature is part of the YMCA youth and government program. Twenty-six other club members from here attended the meeting as either legislators or observers.

Club activities are but one of the three parts of the teenage program offered to Quad-City youths. The three divisions of social, club and athletic correspond to the three phases of the teens' personality which Teen Town wishes to develop. And teen department workers feel the best means of development is self-induced.

The self-government aspect locally is unique among Illinois "Y" groups. "Y" directors provide facilities and guidance; the teenagers themselves decide matters of policy or finance. The 24-member Teen Town council meets every week to decide the number and type of events to schedule for the group.

Affiliating the council are Mrs. C. E. Townsend, the teenage chairman, Mrs. Marie Spengler, the new teenage director, and Mrs. Megie, the assistant director. Mrs. Louise Serfas acts as Teen Town hostess for social affairs. Mrs. Spengler assumed her post Aug. 1, replacing Miss Pat Mega.

The Teen Town council is subordinate only to the general YMCA board.

Because of the tradition of self-rule, teenagers graduate from high school with three or four years' experience in handling their own affairs. Members of the council decide matters for 330 of their peers. Officers of the 20 clubs manage finances and supply leadership.

The 20 clubs include 17 Tri-Hi-Y or girls' clubs and three Hi-Y or boys' clubs. Other groups, such as the active Rock club, grew up at the "Y". In addition, clubs have been organized for junior high school boys and girls.

Each club elects officers and holds weekly meetings during the school year. A representative spends for a club would include service projects at the high school, at churches and throughout the community, such as the Easter Lily parade and the world service candy-selling campaign.

A club's social schedule would list slumber parties, hay rides, honor teas and special dances. Teen Town has raised funds to place a South Korean orphan in a foster-home.

Other events held this year include ice skating parties, book reports, bake sales, guest speakers, fashion shows and religious discussions.

Special committees within the clubs are the Co-ed council, which decides social policy; the Youth and Government committee, which tries to train leaders and each year sends representatives to the youth legislature; and the World Service committee.

tee which coordinates projects raising funds for needy families overseas.

A full schedule of social events is held throughout the year, in addition to the special club dances. Regular Friday night dances attract an average of about 300 teenagers. Three annual dances are held—a "Back to School" affair, a Christmas Dance and a "King and Queen" dance in the spring. A band plays for the special dances and for one regular dance a month.

Highlights for the social year are the crowning of the Snow Princess at the Christmas dance and the naming of the Teen Town King and Queen in the spring.

More than 15 different sports facilities are available in Teen Town's athletic program. Competition is created in leagues, tournaments and meets, while individual sports are going on all the time.

Teen Town sponsors a boys' basketball league throughout the winter, softball teams in the summer, bowling and volleyball leagues, swimming, wrestling and scuba diving teams. For tournament play the group sponsors pool and table tennis contests.

Individual instruction is offered in about ten sports for neophytes. Started this year was a mixing of men and teenage boys in the same physical activity classes. Boys progress faster when they have sterner competition, it has been found.

For anyone simply wanting to exercise a bit, the "Y" gym offers handball and gymnastic equipment as well as a trampoline. For the family of athletes, Teen Town sets aside three nights a week for the member to bring his whole family for a swim.

During the week, the lobby is open from 3:30 to 9:30 p. m., except Wednesdays, and extended hours on Saturdays. Available are pool, table tennis, checkers and cards.

This year the total Teen Town budget is $800, of which the United Fund is contributing $800. Expenses include salaries of the director, assistant director, hostess and maid. Remainder of the cost is made up by dance ticket sales and membership.

For 1962, the budget figure is $865, with the UF contributing the whole amount, or an increase of 7.8% over this year.

Noon Day Optimists View Lincoln Film

A film entitled "Lincoln Speaks for Himself" was shown at the Thursday meeting of the Noon Day Optimist Club at the Granite City Elks Club. Forty members attended and saw the film that pictured excerpts from famous speeches of the statesman's lifetime.

The program was presented by Harry Fichte and the picture showed parts from the Lincoln-Douglas debates, Lincoln's inaugural address, and ended with his immortal Gettysburg address. After the motion picture, Claude Cochran spoke on the value of the club's sixth tenet which reminds members to be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as they are of their own.

Guests at the meeting were Homer Frohardt, a former resident, and Robert Davis and Dale Rea, principals of Central and Emerson schools, respectively.

Full Enforcement Of Insurance Law Can Help Protect Crash Victims From Debt

Experience of a local family with repeated traffic accident injuries emphasizes the need for all motorists to have insurance coverage for injury and property damage involving their autos. Strict enforcement of the law on financial responsibility is important here and throughout the state to protect accident victims and their families from large medical and hospital debts.

Illinois statutes provide that owners of cars in traffic mishaps must either have liability insurance or sufficient financial resources to meet resulting judgments. The alternative is a year's loss of driving and license privileges and future advance proof of coverage.

No law achieves 100% compliance, but full enforcement usually increases its effectiveness. Since responsibility for the consequences is inherent in operation of a motor vehicle, and most persons are not wealthy, the need for insurance is clear. Little sympathy can or should be shown to those who endanger both lives and financial security.

Fixed $30 Month Aldermanic Expense Allowances Not Good Business Practice

Reimbursement of expenses incurred by aldermen in the performance of their duties as representatives of Granite Cityans is quite often necessary, but the practice in the past few years of allowing a fixed amount of $30 per month is neither proper nor fair.

Not all of the 16 aldermen take the "extra" money in addition to their $75 monthly salary; the latest listings indicated payments were made to 16 of the 16 on Aug. 21, one on Aug. 7 and one on Aug. 28.

Fixed expense allowances frequently deteriorate into a subterfuge for additional personal income particularly when, as in the case of the Granite City aldermen, an itemization in detail is not required. This can get a little ridiculous—and it did in August—when many of the $30 expense reimbursements were allowed a week prior to the end of the month. It is difficult to understand how an alderman's expenses for August can be accurately determined before the month ends.

Proper expenditures should not be limited by a fixed $30 ceiling, but to what is actually spent on city business, substantiated by an itemized statement. By the same token, if less than $30 is spent, that is the amount that should be allowed.

Confronted with regular, unvaried $30 "expense" payments to some of the aldermen month after month, with no itemization, the Internal Revenue Department may come to the same conclusion—that is, extra salary to the alderman and, as such, is taxable. We could not quarrel with that.

Fuller Control Of Fringe Areas Will Make Them An Asset To Cities

A ruling by the Illinois attorney general could prove important to the Quad-Cities and other fast-growing communities. The approving opinion on a new state law requires municipalities having official city plans to file them with the county recorder of deeds, who is barred from accepting plans for subdivisions if they do not comply with all of the city planning rules.

The mile-and-a-half territory surrounding cities is similar to that of past fringe-area controls, but until the 1961 legislative session there was no statutory requirement for recording a city plan. Net effect will be that a community will have fuller authority in requiring water service, stormwater drainage, concrete curbs and gutters and other features that are necessary for recording a plan within a mile-and-a-half of its border.

The new law marks a step forward in efforts to achieve orderly development of suburban areas. Fringe areas soon become either an asset or a liability to a nearby city, and usually are annexed to it before long; there is logic in giving the city a strong voice in determining how they are developed.

This latest opinion of the attorney-general also points up the urgent need for planning and zoning by Madison county in the incorporated areas, both within and outside the mile and a half fringe around cities.

Most people will tell you that the old days were wonderful, but few wish to have them back.

Press Box Funds Could Be Better Spent Elsewhere

As one of the potential beneficiaries, we feel called upon to express the view that a press box structure is not among the most essential improvement projects that the Granite City school district needs to carry out. It appears that some other satisfactory arrangement could be made for locating the football scoreboard controls, which have led to the press box plan.

Population growth and rising costs put a premium on every school dollar. News media have been able to report on outdoor athletic events here in the past without benefit of a special shelter. We feel that the approximately $4250 involved could be better spent on strictly school purposes.

Percentage Of Local Students Going To College Rising Rapidly

Not coincidentally, establishment of Southern Illinois University facilities in this area has been followed by a steady increase in the proportion of Quad-City high school graduates going on to college. A further increase seems likely after the new university campus is in full operation.

Counting those obtaining high school transcripts for universities and nursing schools, 193 of this spring's 496 graduates have indicated plans to continue their learning. This represents 39%, up 6% from a year ago, and the institution named most often is SIU.

Only a short time ago, the Illinois Metropolitan Area had the state's lowest percentage of college attendance, due largely to the complete lack of university facilities here. That this is rapidly being changed is made clear by the latest survey of transcripts.

The hardest job is the one that you put off until the last minute.

FINISHING TOUCHES are applied to a sleek wooden cabinet by Albert H. Jones, 2910 Oak street, who carves animals as a hobby but applies himself with the devotion of an artist. Most of his work is slanted to appeal to children and none is for sale. He hopes to display his work in a traveling museum.

Artist Slants Work For Enjoyment By Children

An artist in wood who prefers the acclaim of children to that of critics is busily filling a house in Granite City with affectionate-looking hand-carved animals.

Albert H. Jones, 2910 Oak street, has a collection of more than 20 specimens which he fashioned from walnut, pine and cedar which in some cases are life-size or larger.

"Mostly my work is slanted to appeal to children," he said, "and to help adults see the world through the eyes of a child. When we grow up and stop seeing the world fresh and filled with fantasy, I think we've lost something important."

Jones doesn't sell his carvings and seldom exhibits, although sometimes giving animals away and would probably sell to a museum if any were interested, he says.

Cartoon Characters
Some of the animals were sketched from his models and others were suggested from pictures or from cartoon characters, Jones, who has had no formal art training, said.

"They all have names like Bubbles Bear, Whanno Rat, Ichy Prairie Dog or Pink Mink," he said. "Some are replicas of animals known to any youngster—Pluto, Felix, Mr. Pennybacker, Dopey, Bugs Bunny, for instance."

Jones spends several weeks on each piece, working in his spare time with a collection of gouges and narrow chisels in a tiny shop at the front of his house.

"A carving could be completed in from 50 to 60 hours," he said, "but I only play at it from time to time so it takes much longer."

Hopes To Display
Eventually Jones hopes to retire and build a traveling exhibit so he can display his animals at libraries around the country or wherever they might be requested.

"When I look at a tree or a piece of wood I can almost see a particular animal," he says, "so it is always a challenge to bring it out."

Blood Donors Needed For Granite City

An appeal for blood donors for a Granite City woman who is in Jewish Hospital in St. Louis and may undergo a delicate heart operation this week has been received by the Press-Record.

Mrs. William F. Parks, 2822 Marshall avenue, said her daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Ellis, entered the hospital last week with a rheumatic heart condition and has had extensive tests. The surgery will be performed as soon as she is strong enough, Mrs. Parks said.

Mrs. Ellis has two young children to support, her mother reported, and already has been faced with high medical bills. The hospital will furnish the necessary blood so long as an equal amount of any type is replenished by donors.

Mrs. Parks asked that persons who are willing to give blood call her.

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

By Rev. Samuel Boda, Pastor, St. John's Lutheran Church
A woman pulled into a service station one hot August day and asked about a heater for her car. "I'm sorry," the attendant replied. "We don't carry them in the summer time. If you come back in the fall, we'll be glad to take care of you."

"Oh, no," she remarked, "I must have it now, today."

The attendant was puzzled. He couldn't understand why she should be so insistent on taking a heater installed in August, when the weather was so uncomfortably warm.

"That isn't it," she explained. "You see, last Christmas my aunt sent me money for a car heater. We were grateful and promised her that we would buy it. But we kept putting it off and postponing and never got around to buying it. Then today we received a telegram stating that she was coming to visit us tomorrow. We don't want her to think that we failed her and broke our promise. We want a heater in the car before she comes."

Many of us make promises to our Lord God, don't we? Whether it is in sickness, or during a hospital stay, or in other troubles, many do promise, "Lord, if you pull me through, I promise to worship You more faithfully, and to pray more often."

But how often isn't it true that many of these promises are put off and postponed? Are there promises you have made that are still unkept?

Some day our Lord Jesus will return to our earth, but there will be no time to prepare us. He has already given us such notice in His Word. Why take a chance at being embarrassed and caught off guard and sleeping on the job when He comes? "For we shall all stand before the judgement of Christ."

Romans 14:10
If you have failed to live up to promises you have made to your Lord and God, repent! Confess your failures and sins to Him and plead for His forgiveness.

Jesus Christ, your holy Savior, has earned full forgiveness for all of your sins by making atonement for them on the cross. Believe this with all your heart. Accept it. It's God's greatest gift of love to you.

Then determine with new gratefulness and with the aid of God's Holy Spirit to apply yourself with new energies to fulfill your promise to your forgiving Lord—before He returns.

Capital Improvements Budget Recommended For City

(This is the 23rd in a series of articles based on a reorganization study of city government in Granite City by Southern Illinois University.)

Recommendations for several capital improvements for Granite City were made by the university team of experts and among these are a city garage and automobile repair and maintenance shop and a new police station, as well as an additional fire station, fire equipment and street, sewer and drainage improvements.

"It is vital," the team of experts points out, "that these needs be organized in a logical manner, that priorities be established and a feasible program be determined for their eventual construction."

"Obviously, funds and manpower must be available to complete at once. It is equally obvious that to proceed without a plan can mean the waste of funds and manpower."

Full Explanation

That the

Zoning Preparations Among Items In New County Budget

While parcel to minimum essential, the proposed five-month Madison county budget includes at least partial provision for a program that backers say can pave the way for a period of marked growth and prosperity.

The program is county zoning, which is reaching the final stages of preparation. Although the shortest "year" in the history of the county—due to a change in fiscal dates—this fall could prove more significant than many 12-month periods because it could herald the start of zoning, advocates point out. Exact timing of the final steps remains uncertain.

The $3087 appropriation spells out the tasks that remain — hearings in townships on zoning, $588; special topographic expense, $125; zoning commission expense, meals and mileage, $1896; printing the zoning act booklet form, $1250; Zoning Board of Appeals expense, $834; Zoning Board of Appeals topographic help, $209; printing for administration of zoning, $125; County Regional Planning Committee, $209; and zoning enforcement officer, $1.

While the amount is not regarded as fully adequate, cutting procedures are being studied and the possibility of seeking public cooperation to reduce the expense is being discussed. A possible goal is adoption this fall, with enforcement starting during the fiscal year beginning Jan. 1.

The allocation is included in a tentative budget scheduled for final consideration by the County Board of Supervisors on Tuesday, Sept. 12. Lack of zoning has been cited as a factor delaying location of industries within the county.

The budget consists of $394,294 for general operations, $178,600 for special operations and $831,622 for special funds.

A breakdown of the general fund by departmental totals follows: judiciary and court expenses, $91,473; county jail institution and penal expenses, $42,168; county nursing home, $38,601; welfare work, $107,490; administrative expenses, court-house, $28,416; other administrative expenses, $140,477; educational expenses, $5059; miscellaneous expenses, $112,446; and contingencies, $28,304.

Special funds are the county tuberculosis sanatorium, $182,045; county highway fund, $178,000; county bridge fund, $184,000; county retirement fund, $120,000; and veterans assistance commission, $4677.

Expenditures From Fees

In addition, the following appropriations have been listed for self-sustaining offices as salaries and expenses to be paid from the office's fees and earnings: county treasurer, $45,877; county clerk, $38,084; probate clerk, $11,010; sheriff, $11,578; circuit clerk, $18,461; recorder of deeds, $23,223; and coroner, $3581.

A further breakdown of departmental shows the following proposed expenditures: Judiciary and court expenses — Alton city court, $4169; Granite City court, $6055; probate court, $11,688; county court, $15,567; circuit court, $25,806; general court court, $8772; justice of peace courts, $19,376; County jail — personal services, $3209; commodities, $15,604; and penal expenses other than county jail, $3460.
